1. When the Austrian tax investigator first came to Salzburg to inquire about the Field Survey Detachment, Art WILLER of CID sent a CID agent named LOFTIS to [ ]. He had with him a few of the documents on the case. Nottle denied any knowledge of the affair and turned it back into G-2 channels but photographed the documents, including the original Field Survey Detachment letter which the local Usage representative says is a forgery.

2. Attached is the film containing the documents.
